HILBY COMES TO TRUMANSBURG!

Mark your calendars now so you don't miss Hilby the German Juggle boy performing live at the Tru-Ulysses Winter Festival on Friday, December 5th.

Renowned for his hilarious speeches and antics, Hilby will begin his show at 6:00 p.m. in front of the Tompkins Trust Company on Main Street in Trumansburg.

For further information visit the Winter Festival site: www.Tru-Ulysseswinterfest.org or contact Tammy Morse at 387-6501.

ALONG THE TRAIL HOME TOUR

Along the Trail: A Holiday Home Tour sponsored by the Trumansburg Area Chamber of Commerce will begin at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 6th. Once again, specially chosen sites will be opened to the public to tell the Trumansburg story, including private homes, art studios, bed and breakfasts, and other unique buildings.

The self-guided tour will conclude at 4:00 with an elegant reception hosted by Jamie Kehoe at the New Park on Taughannock Boulevard.

Tickets are $20.00/person and are available now at the Tompkins Trust Company and Village Office in Trumansburg.
